Office of the Chief of Staff,
Washington, February 25, 1913.

This revised and enlarged edition of the "Bibliography of State Participation in the Civil War, 1861–1866," prepared in the War Department library, is published for the information of all concerned.

By order of the Secretary of War:

Major General, Chief of Staff.

PREFACE.

The first edition of this catalogue was published in 1897, the second edition 1899, and the supplement to the second edition 1904. The general arrangement is alphabetical by States with the following threefold division in each State:

1. Official publications, such as reports of adjutants general, governors' messages, State registers, etc.

2. Regimental histories in alphabetical and numerical sequence.

3. Miscellaneous, such as State, county, and town histories, and all material bearing upon the local participation not embraced in the preceding divisions.

General associations, both Union and Confederate, covering more than one State, memorial organizations, Army corps, occasional periodicals, etc., are contained in the appendix.

Many synonyms of Confederate organizations have been added. Similar information concerning Union forces can be found in "Synonyms of Volunteer Organizations of the United States," printed by the Adjutant General's office in 1885.

An asterisk preceding the title indicates that the book is not in the War Department library. In such cases, however, the locality, when known, is designated. All needed information about missing numbers and missing titles will be appreciated.

In several of the Southern and border States there were both Confederate and Federal organizations. It has been found convenient to designate the Federal organizations by the use of the word Union in parentheses, viz, (Union).

The War Department library would be glad to receive from individuals, societies, or associations any material bearing upon the civil war, which may be sent gratuitously, either new matter or to complete partial files. Franks will be sent to cover the prepayment of postage to the library.

10th infantry.

The 10th (also called Nelson's) regiment Texas infantry was organized in October, 1861, with eight companies, A to H, which had been mustered into service on various dates from October 13 to 31, 1861. Companies I and K were mustered into service January 16 and 28, respectively. Most of the members of this regiment were captured at Arkansas Post, Ark., January 11, 1863, and exchanged in April, 1863, east of the Mississippi River where they were temporarily consolidated in May, 1863, with similar remnants of the 6th regiment Texas infantry and the 15th regiment Texas cavalry. This consolidation was broken up in March, 1864, and each company of this organization was mustered separately and under its original designation during that entire period. About April, 1865, this remnant of the regiment became Companies D and E of the regiment which was formed by the consolidation of Granbury's Texas brigade and was paroled at Greensboro, N. C., about May 1, 1865.

That part of the regiment which was not captured at Arkansas Post, and some of the supernumerary officers, are found to have subsequently served in the 17th consolidated regiment Texas dismounted cavalry and in other orgnaizations in the Trans-Mississippi Department.

Captain McKnight's Company L was transferred to the 14th regiment Texas infantry some time prior to October 31, 1862, and became (1st) Company K of that organization.

20th infantry. Company H.

The 20th regiment Virginia infantry was accepted into the Confederate service about July 1, 1861, with ten companies, A to K. Companies A to E were disbanded September 10, 1861; Company F was assigned as Company A, 57th regiment Virginia infantry about September 23, 1861; Companies G and H were captured at Rich Mountain, Va., in July, 1861, and disbanded while paroled prisoners of war. About November 23, 1861, an unsuccessful attempt was made to organize a 4th battalion Virginia infantry with Companies I and K of this regiment and six Georgia companies. On May 29, 1862, these two companies were assigned as Companies D and F, 46th regiment Virginia infantry, and served as such until September 14, 1862, when they resumed their original designations. On October 27, 1862, they were assigned as Companies B and C, 59th regiment Virginia infantry.
